IMMEDIATE RELEASE

USD ALUMNI SELECTED FOR OUTSTANDING YOUNG MEN LISTING

SAN DIEGO, Calif.--Two alumni of the University of San Diego have been selected for inclusion in the 1970 edition of "Outstanding Young Men of America."

The two are Grant A. Taylor, vice president, trust department, Southern California First National Bank, and Francis E. (Ned) Wilson, science instructor, St. Augustine High School and president of the Association of Catholic Teachers of Science.

Taylor is a 1958 graduate with a degree in business administration, and past president of the USD College for Men Alumni Association.

Wilson is a 1962 graduate with a degree in science, and he is currently vice president of the alumni association.

The publication, "Outstanding Young Men of America," includes young men of accomplishment throughout the nation, selected by Jaycee chapters, college alumni associations and military commandants. The selection criteria includes professional excellence, business advancement, charitable activities and civic and professional recognition.
